Ms. Cabral won the Gold Stevie for Female Entrepreneur of the Year in Canada, and Silver Stevies in the following categories:

- Lifetime Achievement – Business
- Female Entrepreneur of the Year – Business Services –11 to 2,500 Employees
- Female Executive of the Year in Canada
- Female Executive of the Year – Business Services –11 to 2,500 Employees
- Woman of the Year – Business Services
- Company of the Year – Business Services – More Than 10 Employees

“It is such a fantastic privilege to be able to be in the same group as the women who have been selected for these awards, and an absolute honor to be recognized with seven awards!” said Ms. Cabral. “This distinction is also for the “Pinkers” who have worked tirelessly to help Pink Elephant become a leader on a global stage.”

The Stevie Awards for Women in Business are the world’s top honors for female entrepreneurs, executives, employees and the organizations they run. All individuals and organizations worldwide are eligible to submit nominations – public and private, for-profit and non-profit, large and small. The 2015 awards received entries from 31 nations and territories.

“We are again humbled by the accomplishments of so many high-achieving women in this program,” said Michael Gallagher, founder and president of the Stevie Awards. Their work is an inspiration to girls and women around the world who dream of starting and growing a business, managing a leading company, or improving their community. We congratulate all of this year’s Grand, Gold, Silver and Bronze Stevie Awards.”
